

1. Answer: A part of Application that seen in browser that called Client side. Function or mechanism is being Worked in backside of a application, that function or mechanism called server side. Difference is client side is seen but server side is unseen.
2. Answer: Http request is module. Full form is Hypertext transfer protocol. http request is used to make a server. Get, post, put, patch, delete
3. Answer: Json means JavaScript Object Notation. Json is a powerful data interchange structure.
 - a. Data Transfer:
 - b. API Communication
 - c. Configuration Files
 - d. Data Storage
 - e. Client-side Data Manipulation
4. Answer: Middleware is some code/ function or group of code. Middleware is used for a specific work. Middleware is already created.
Example: `app.use(express.json())`.
5. Answer: Controller is some code/ function or group of code which is used for random work. When client send any request to server controller receive the request after processing controller send data to response.